

Website - Terms of Service (TOS) - May 2020

The text below was added to the site on May 12, 2020 and is applicable to all registration requests submitted from that date through the effective date of any future TOS statement.

Terms of Service: Registration on this site is voluntary. When registering you will need to provide the following required information: 1) your name, 2) your email address, and 3) your Sunshine Villas street address. Your name and street address are used to validate that you are a Sunshine Villas owner or owner family member. Your name is also used to identify you as author of any Alert or Classified post submitted by you on the site. Your email address is used as your unique ID to log in to the site and used by the site to send you emails about site activity (email opt-out available). All other fields presented to you during the registration process are optional. Your personal data is confidential and will never be used for purposes not presented above.

Registration on this site is considered implicit agreement with these terms of service.
